HOSPITAL PORTABILITY COVERAGE

What is Portability of Hospital Insurance?

As part of the Hospital coverage provided by your Employer, a feature was included in the policy to allow you and your spouse and children to continue this coverage when you terminate employment with the employer or are no longer in an eligible group. Portability of Hospital Insurance provides the same coverage you have at time of port. Different rates may apply.

Important facts to remember (See Portability of Hospital Insurance in your certificate)

- Portability is not available if the policy is cancelled by Unum.
- You may continue coverage for yourself, your spouse and/or children at the current benefit plan option. You may also choose to remove coverage for your spouse and/or children. If your employer's plan includes a lower option, coverage may also be lowered, but not increased.
- If you choose to cancel your ported coverage, coverage for all Insureds will end on the first of the month following the date you provide notification to us.
 - Otherwise, your ported coverage will end on the earliest of:
 - the date you fail to pay the required premium within 31 days of a premium due date;
 - the date you are rehired by your Employer or return to an Eligible Group and are covered under the Employer's group Policy;
 - the date coverage provided under Portability is cancelled by us for any reason upon 45 days notice
 - the date you die; or
 - for coverage sitused (state that governs the contract) in Kentucky, Ohio and Tennessee, the date the Employer's policy terminates.
 - Your Spouse's ported coverage will end on the earliest of:
 - the date your ported coverage ends;
 - the date your Spouse is no longer eligible for coverage;
 - the date your Spouse no longer meets the definition of a Spouse;
 - the date of your Spouse's death; or
 - the date of divorce or annulment.
 - If your Spouse's coverage ends as a result of your death, divorce or annulment, your Spouse has the option to port coverage.
 - Your Children's ported coverage will end on the earliest of:
 - the date your ported coverage ends:
 - the date your Children are no longer eligible for coverage; or
 - the date your Children no longer meet the definition of Children.
 - Once ported coverage ends, it cannot be reinstated.

What are the Employer's responsibilities?

- Fully complete Section 1 of the election form and provide to the participant. Incomplete election forms may result in a denial of the applications.
- Determine if terminating employee is eligible to apply for Portability of Hospital Insurance (see certificate for detailed requirements).
- Provide separate election forms when portability is offered under more than one insurance policy.
- Provide premium rates and portability election forms to eligible termination employees eligible to port coverage.

What are the Employee's responsibilities?

- Fully complete Section 2. Sign and date the election form. Incomplete election forms may result in a denial of the application.
- Select if you want to keep existing or reduce coverage for you, your Spouse and your Children. Any changes to Children coverage applies to all eligible children. If you reduce coverage for yourself, coverage is automatically reduced for your spouse and children.
- Designate a beneficiary using the form provided.
- Send the election form to 2211 Congress Street, Attn: Portability Unit, Portland, ME 04122 or fax to 207-575-2993.
- Please remember to:
 - include your ACH form;
 - sign and date the election form with today's date;
 - designate a beneficiary;
 - contact us when your last child reaches age 26 to cancel child coverage.

Retain a copy of this for your records.
